

Passive Pairs

Test your knowledge

Work in pairs or groups of three. Put the info-cards on the desk so you can all see them well. Put all the other cards face down on the desk.

One player picks up the first card and reads it out.

For example: Romeo and Juliet was ...written by...

You will have to use your own verbs to complete the sentences meaningfully.

Both players try to find the matching info card on the desk and complete the sentence.

Then player 2 reads picks up the next card...

Note: this is not a competitive game. Work as a team and see if you can find all the matching pairs.

Passive Pairs

Test your knowledge

Work in pairs or groups of three. Put the info-cards on the desk so you can all see them well. Put all the other cards face down on the desk.

One player picks up the first card and reads it out.

For example: Romeo and Juliet was ...written by...

You will have to use your own verbs to complete the sentences meaningfully.

Both players try to find the matching info card on the desk and complete the sentence.

Then player 2 reads picks up the next card...

Note: this is not a competitive game. Work as a team and see if you can find all the matching pairs.

Passive Pairs

Test your knowledge

Work in pairs or groups of three. Put the info-cards on the desk so you can all see them well. Put all the other cards face down on the desk.

One player picks up the first card and reads it out.

For example: Romeo and Juliet was ...written by...

You will have to use your own verbs to complete the sentences meaningfully.

Both players try to find the matching info card on the desk and complete the sentence.

Then player 2 reads picks up the next card...

Note: this is not a competitive game. Work as a team and see if you can find all the matching pairs.

Passive Pairs

Test your knowledge

Work in pairs or groups of three. Put the info-cards on the desk so you can all see them well. Put all the other cards face down on the desk.

One player picks up the first card and reads it out.

For example: Romeo and Juliet was ...written by...

You will have to use your own verbs to complete the sentences meaningfully.

Both players try to find the matching info card on the desk and complete the sentence.

Then player 2 reads picks up the next card...

Note: this is not a competitive game. Work as a team and see if you can find all the matching pairs.

Julius Caesar		by Brutus
Romeo and Juliet		by William Shakespeare
America		in 1492
The telephone		by Graham Bell
Microsoft		by Bill Gates
The Mona Lisa		by Leonardo da Vinci

The Eiffel Tower		in 1889
The first Apple computer		in 1976
The electric lightbulb		by Tom Edison
Rome		by Romulus and Remus in 753 BC
Harry Potter		by J.K. Rowling
First washing machine		in the 17th century

The 1st bicycle		in 1817 by Karl von Drais in Baden/ Germany
The first Olympic Games		in Olympia, Greece in 776 B.C.
The Starry Night		by Vincent van Gogh
Marilyn Monroe		by Andy Warhol
The Golden Gate Bridge		on May 27, 1937
The Statue of Liberty		by Frédéric Auguste Bartholdi in 1886	