Winnie's House

Bedroom: Her bedroom must be gigantic and I can understand why she likes waking up, if she can really see for miles. I love her nice windows and I wonder if her bedroom has a balcony.

Bathroom: Does she really have a black bathtub that must be creepy to take a bath there? Will it not be hard on keeping clean a white bathtub.

Kitchen: Sadly I don't raise a cat but I would love to have one. The kitchen must be huge with all those windows. I'd love to have a balcony in my kitchen!

Hallways: I wonder who hangs on portraits in the hallways. Maybe farmhouse witches. Why is there a door in the middle of the hallway-wall and for some reason all the windows have a different shape.

Computer Room: I want a swivel chair too it must be custom to chat on the computer at the top of the house and with those big windows there will be lots of sunshine and light in there.

Drawing Room: It's always nice to have a pretty room in your house and decorated with lots of drawings. I'm sure it looks even nicer. Probably she also has a nice seating arrangement for guests in there.

Letter to Winnie

Dear Winnie,

I really love to read your exciting stories and I can see you really work hard on your spells. Try not to do so much ^{without thinking} I about what you are doing. I see lots of things go wrong on your spells, but they are still very funny. I wonder where you bought Willow, because he is so cute and cuddly. I really would like to meet you personally, but it seems that you live in a different world. Oh, and I would really love to have a magic broom like you and a pointed hat and red fuzzy witch's hair. I wish you only the best!

your, Lilly

Winnie's Favorite Food

Snake Soup

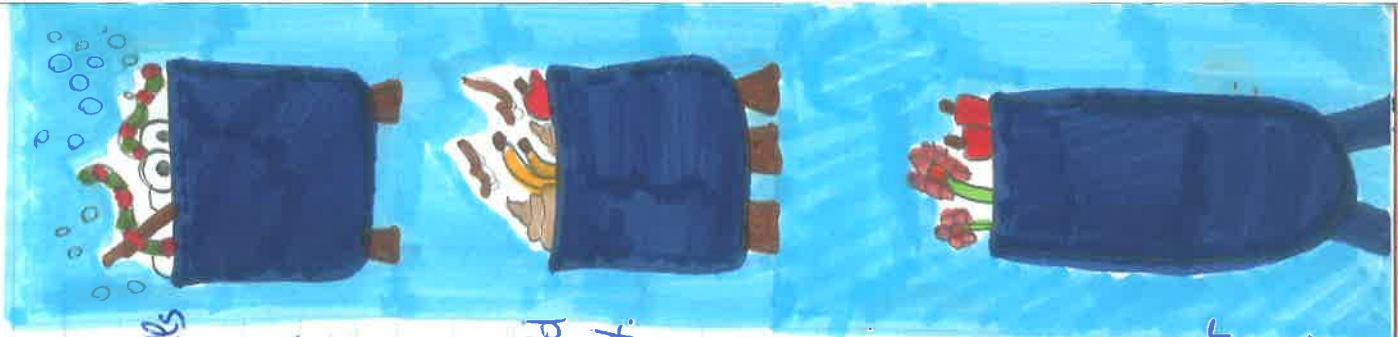

The ingredients are very icky. Dried eyeballs and striped snakes with bubbles and boiling water. With a touch of maple tree juice it will be perfect. It's delicious to eat with a slice of cake.

THE POOPY SOUP

Its ingredients are very special. Old bananas with red apple makes it perfect. With a little cow-poop. It will be so tasty it is perfect!

POISON APPLE SOUP

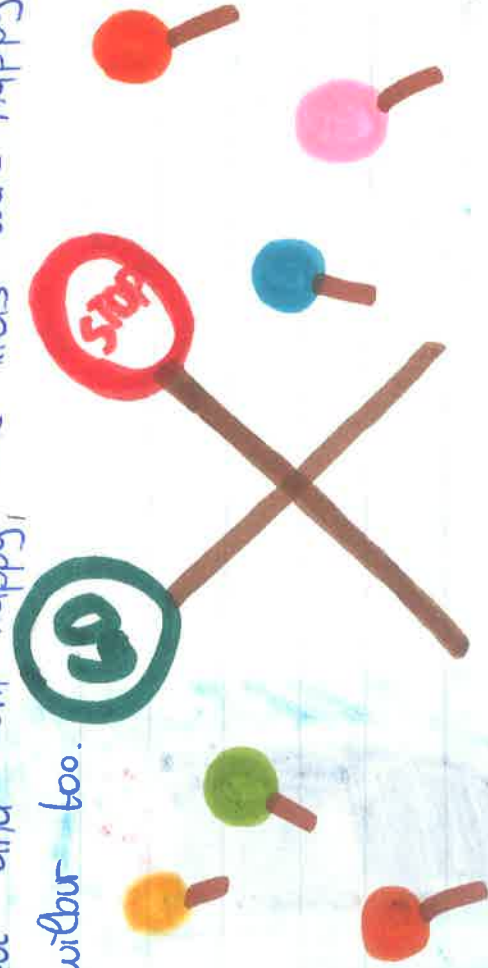

What a soup. Poison apple. The freezing water is mixed with whole apple pieces and mashed apple. The roses are put in to make the soup slightly sweet and the bitter taste from the apple still stays.

Winnie's diary

Winnie on Patrol:

What a great day! Today Wilbur and me helped the kids get to school. I used a big red and green lollipop to make the cars stop and go. It was great fun and I loved the cardriving board and probably he is still driving all round the world. It was pretty cool, when I had the giant lollipop, but then instead I made one for every one and all had there own. It was great fun helping out and I'm happy, the kids were happy and Wilbur too.

Winnie's diary Winnie's Fun Run

- 1 Hi every body and welcome to my newest
- 2 entry in my diary! Yesterday Wilbur and
- 3 me took place at a fun run. I also went
- 4 to a costume competition. I tried out
- 5 lots of different outfits. First I was a mer-
- 6 maid, but it didn't work out too well,
- 7 because it's not possible to run with fins.
- 8 So I became a ballerina but also this
- 9 outfit was not good for the run cup.
- 10 So I became a night with great armor
- 11 and it was all shiny and silver! But I
- 12 couldn't run with it, so I decided to
- 13 dress up as a beautiful princess! This
- 14 was very good and all I needed was
- 15 a spell to make me run fast. It didn't
- 16 work too well so I used the fastest

17 running shoes ever! With them I wore 18 the cup (all though they ran off without 19 me) and I even got a prize for the 20 best costume. Then my giant friend
21 even gave me a piggy-back ride
22 home. What a great day and I
23 really learned a lot! Have fun reading
24 my entry and I hope you enjoy!!
