

1. Book circles

Red question cards: Write 5 questions that you haven't been able to answer when reading the book.

Yellow feature cards: Write 5 interesting features/elements: (clear statements about themes, characters, plot development, style and tone, setting, ...)

Sign your cards, then put your cards in the middle and check if there are any similarities ...
Discuss the feature cards then try to find answers for your question cards. Write your answers and discussion notes into your reading diary

If you need additional info, check the internet, the library, or ask your teacher(s)

2. Plan your presentation:

Museum Displays and Guided Tours

Imagine a big museum wants to present the most important events and features of this famous book. Prepare an interesting display and a guided tour through your museum that shows the visitors around in the world of your novel. Be creative and design your items carefully. Remember we are in a famous museum. Your guided tour should take between 10 and 15 minutes.

Ideas:

Plot diagrams

Character portraits

Settings (photographs, paintings)

Maps

Important objects, symbols

Taped dialog/video sequence

Posters

...

Assessment criteria for your museum tours will be:

Good information and facts

Clear presentation, the general public should have a good impression of the story (its plot, characters, settings)

Information about themes, symbols, similarities to other books,

Quality of displays (nicely presented, carefully done, artistic quality, fits the style of the book)

Entertaining tour, not dry facts only, include anecdotes, examples, make the characters come alive
