| Suddenly....I saw// I heard// I felt... | All of a sudden... | The moon was shining. | There were whispering sounds. |
| A storm was howling. | Thunder was rumbling in the distance. | Smoke was rising out of the chimney. | The door was ajar. |
| It sounded like the wind was whispering a secret into my ear. | Far off in the distance a wolf was howling. | The weeds/bushes were rustling in the garden. | Lightning was flashing through the sky. |
| The wind/rain was lashing against the door. | An owl was hooting somewhere in the darkness. | The shutters on the windows were swinging/banging open and closed. | Shadows were dancing across the garden. |
| The moon was casting shadows across the garden. | Clouds were blanketing the sky. | The moon was shining and clouds were blowing across the sky. | It was dusk and the sun was setting in the sky. |
| The children were tiptoeing through the garden. | One boy/girl was looking/peering through the gate. | One boy/girl was whispering into the other one's ear. | They were shaking with fear... |

|---|---|--|--|
| They were trembling with fear... | His/her voice was trembling. | The gate was creaking in the wind. | The wind was whispering through the trees. |
| The overgrown grass was blowing in the wind. | The animals were hiding in their holes. | Spiders were spinning their webs. | The crows were shrieking. |
| A candle was flickering in the window. | The jack-o-lantern was glowing | The windows were boarded up. | The wind was moaning in the distance. |
| The statues were staring down at them. | The fire was crackling in the fireplace. | The spider webs were swaying in the breeze. | The floorboards were creaking under their feet. |
| Dark clouds were rolling across the sky. | Frogs were croaking near the pond. | The sound of footsteps was echoing through the house. | Bones were rotting in the front yard. |
| Her teeth were chattering uncontrollably. | Ravens were flying through the sky. | A rocking chair was creaking in a corner. | The wet grass was glistening in the moonlight |
